

Misleader

We've been blind blind by your promises Let your mastermind unveil the compromises

You told us to follow your rules are our sorrow You're a lying nonsense misleading our innocence

We've been hurt hurt by your greedy soul while you're out there having fun we're digging the dirt

Misleader you're a betrayer while we kneel in prayer Misleader you're a sweet player while we walk and stagger

We were raised to bow and obey for the fear of your power was there to linger

(oh it's so late oh oh oh too late)

There will come a day a bright sunny day you will find yourself astray like a dog on a motorway

while we kneel in prayer
Misleader you're a sweet player

oh oh oh too late)

We will stop to follow you'll be your own sorrow You're a dying nonsense
