

Live up to your expectations

CMacé2018

No doubt, I've missed the point.
I'll keep trying.
You might think I've given up.
I'll keep trying.
I promise to do my best without rest,
adopt another strategy,
start a brand new policy

Struggling with a lack of recognition
I won't live up to your expectations

How about my needs clashing with your priorities ?
Check in every now and then see how things are going, amen

You hope I'll live up to your choices
But it's not likely.
You sit with a secret answer a game guess for me

Struggling with a lack of recognition
I won't live up to your expectations
