

I'm done

Cmacé 2018

I'm done
left with nothing
But my beaten up self
That last time was the one too far
We
Shut our mind to our despair
Enclosed as Always
You kept to yourself while I went aloof as a Lost child

Was there anything that mattered to you
Oh again
was there anything you minded
I keep asking myself..
How long have we not been trusting each other
We let each other down
Again and again
Till it mattered no more no more

I keep Replaying
our last years together
Tiptoeing around you, clunching my fists, grinding my teeth Loneliness is a cold friend
Won't forget myshattered hopes burry my Dreams on a barren and forgotten Land.
Then will I Wake up to the dawn of a new me,
Your memory washed ashore
