

the next station

CMacé2018

is a hot and lively day one of the precious ones that fill one's life Back in London
back to oldself back to forever young back to future ground Memory lanes so long gone welcoming a brand new slate walking the hot pavements, sharing melted ice cream, talking this, laughing that,
joy bouncing in each of our steps
